L.A. Represents

Sent on behalf of the Mayors Office of Public Safety:

We would like to inform you of a valuable resource which may be of use if you need help or support for addressing domestic violence and other family legal issues. L.A. Represents is a program created by Los Angeles Mayor Eric Garcetti that brings together law firms, legal aid organizations, and bar associations to work on providing pro bono services to those hit hardest by COVID-19. In addition to tenant advocacy, employment protections, and support for small businesses, L.A. Represents has partnered with several legal aid organizations to provide legal assistance to survivors of domestic violence. Please visit coronavirus.lacity.org/LARepresents for additional information and to access these services. Please note that if you or someone you know is in immediate danger, call 9-1-1.
