Childcare, Early Education and

Mental Health

L.A. Care Referral Handout

WIC - Women's, Infants & Children's Supplemental Food Program

low-income pregnant and postpartum women and children birth to age 5.

Food vouchers, nutrition information, and health care referrals for

This handout can be individualized to an agency or parent by adding specific names of agencies and phone numbers

Early Intervention

Special Education

Agency Name: Regional Center: Early Start Program Program for infants and toddlers (birth-3) with developmental disabilities. Phone Number: Early Start Family Resource Centers (FRCs) Agency Name: Parent-to-parent support such as education, training, resources and referrals. Phone Number: Early Head Start/Head Start Programs Agency Name: Free early learning program that supports school readiness for low-income families for children up to age 5. Phone Number: Special Education Services Agency Name: Free education instruction and supports to meet the unique needs of the child with a disability that affects learning (ages 3-21). Phone Number: Resource and Referral Agency (R&R) Agency Name: Free support to help parents find childcare that best fits the family needs. Phone Number: Special Education Support Services Agency Name: Helps families find services in public schools for students with special needs (ages 3-21). Phone Number: Agency Name: Mental Health Services Provides mental health services for children birth-5 and their families. Phone Number: L.A. County Department of Mental Health Birth to 5 Representatives Agency Name: Answers questions about available services and programs and assists families with referrals and getting services. Phone Number: Agency Name: Office of Clients Rights Advocacy (OCRA) Provides guidance and legal services to regional center clients. Phone Number: Ethnic-focused Parent Education, Support and Advocacy Organizations Agency Name: Helps families get services and provides parenting and support groups based on the needs of a specific racial, ethnic or language group. Phone Number: 211 LA 211 LA Agency Name: Finds health and social service programs in Los Angeles County 24/7. 2-1-1 Phone Number:

Agency Name:

Phone Number: