

FREE FOOD DONATION SERVICES FOR LOS ANGELES COUNTY BUSINESSES

Do you manage a business in the food industry?
Need assistance managing surplus food? We can help!

The Los Angeles County Department of Public Health's Nutrition and Physical Activity Program (Public Health) has launched a pilot project to partner with Copia™ to redistribute surplus food to community-based organizations. The goal of the project is to work with businesses to redistribute surplus food to communities in need, especially during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Thanks to the County of Los Angeles' Quality and Productivity Commission, Public Health is offering the following services to businesses free of cost for 12 months.

Donation pickups

Eight monthly (twice weekly) donation pickups and delivery of surplus edible food to nonprofit organizations*

Tracking Tools

You'll receive access to Copia's donation and food waste tracking tools.

Support

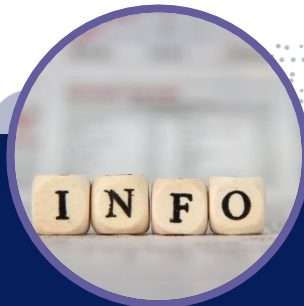

Participants get access to Copia's live operations team for real-time support and management.

*One pickup includes one driver with a maximum load of 250 pounds. Pickups can be scheduled "on demand" any day between 9 AM and 5 PM.

HOW TO APPLY

Fill out the "Getting to Know You" form bit.ly/CopiaSignUpLAC

Need more information? Contact Bernadet Garcia-Silva at bsilva@ph.lacounty.gov

Interested nonprofit organizations looking to become recipients of surplus food can contact Paige Sullivan at paige@gocopia.com

To learn about the Good Samaritan laws that protect donors, visit savethefoodla.com.

