National Prevention Week (NPW) is a national public education platform bringing together communities and organizations to raise awareness about the importance of substance use prevention and positive mental health.

MONDAY, May 9

Strengthening Community #Resilient: Substance Misuse and Overdose Prevention

Join us to listen to stories of hope and resiliency from substance misuse. We'll be joined by panelists such as such as a pastor, an individual in recovery, and a public health professional to share their stories of justice, faith, and equity.

Register at: <https://bit.ly/2022prevention>

WEDNESDAY, May 11 at 6:00 pm - 7:00 pm

Preventing Suicide: Everyone Plays a Role #OkayToFeel

Join us for a special panel discussion featuring mental health experts and real experiences from youth as we explore how we can help prevent suicide and collectively heal.

Register at bit.ly/DO_NPW.

FRIDAY, May 13 from 3:30 pm - 6:30 pm

Prevention is Everywhere: Highlighting Efforts Across Settings and Communities #Supported

Join us in the festivities and in-person community connection at Belvedere Park. Learn about LA County substance use disorder prevention efforts through fun activities and games!
